Evelyn Lucabaugh Obituary

Evelyn Lucabaugh (Wilkinson), 81, of York, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully on December 17, 2025.

Born October 21st 1944 in Biglerville, Pennsylvania, she was the beloved daughter of the late Charles and Kathren Wilkinson. A talented seamstress, she took great pride in her work, sewing for local factories and bridal shops and providing trusted services for many area dry cleaners. She was also an accomplished gardener, known for her ability to identify plants and understand where and how they would thrive, creating gardens that reflected both her knowledge and care.

In October of 1995, she married Barry Lucabaugh, and together they shared many years of companionship. She was a faithful attendee of York Bible Church, where she found comfort and community.

Above all else, she was devoted to her family and was often described as the "best mom in the world." She was admired for her wisdom, kindness, and loving heart. She found joy in simple pleasures—doing crossword puzzles, playing Scrabble, caring for her beloved cats, and watching the many birds and squirrels on the back porch.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Kathren Wilkinson, and by her son, James F. Pressel.

She is survived by her four daughters: Jean Fortney and husband Jeff, Ann Smith and husband Wade, Audrey Ferris and husband Doug, and Goldie Blickstein and husband Loren; five step-children, including two step-sons and three step-daughters; nine grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

A visitation will be held on Saturday, January 3, 2026, from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m., followed by a memorial service at 2:00 p.m. at New Creation Community Church, 3005 Emig Mill Rd, Dover, PA 17315.

Memorial contributions may be made to York Bible Church, 890 Taxville Road, York, PA.

She will be deeply missed.
